

Who are you?

- You are someone with a genuine concern about the current state of the Cypriot Society and You are convinced that there is something fundamentally wrong with it.
- You are capable of understanding why this site is in English and not in Greek. Who speaks/reads Cypriot(Greek) is not necessarily someone with a genuine concern as stated above and vice-versa. On the contrary, if you cannot read English in the 21st Century you are unlikely to be properly informed about the real forces/issues that impact profoundly the Cypriot society.
- You are convinced that the Cypriot government is not acting in the best interest of the people it represents
- You are convinced that the Cypriot banking system is there to serve the interests of a few greedy individuals and not to benefit society as a whole
- You are convinced that the Cypriot judicial system is to a large extent corrupt and does not unconditionally uphold the rights of the individual under the constitution
- You are convinced too many children are being born and ill-bread by incompetent selfish parents
- You are convinced individuality is being lost and sameness is being promoted by those useless politicians who are controlling our lives
- You are convinced that You are working primarily to support the rotten system described above
- You see no real future for your kids and You are not sure what to advise them to do about it
- You are not sure what can be done about all the above
- You are convinced that individually nothing can be achieved and You are prepared to contribute (not necessarily financially) to a worthwhile group effort
